DESIGN THAT SHINES

A stunning design showroom replete with an enviable array of luxury finds is just one key to Hoff Miller's nearly four decades of success.

When not delighting and inspiring their client roster of some of the region's most notable interior designers and architects, the team at Hoff Miller—fondly known as simply “the gals” to many—can be found among the showroom's extraordinary collections of furniture, fabric, and accessories, sharing their expertise with designers, creatively reimagining vignettes, and incorporating new pieces from market.

“What sets us apart, and what we are known for, is our friendly and welcoming environment,” says Leanna Hoff Boers, Hoff Miller cofounder and owner. “And we're proud to work with designers within the entire Rocky Mountain region.”

Hickory Chair®, Regal Furniture, Century® Furniture, and Pindler are just a few of the venerable names populating Hoff Miller's floor, and their partnerships with many go back to their earliest days. Expanding their to-the-trade business, Hoff Miller has recently launched a dedicated year-round outdoor space, OUTSIDE Hoff Miller, which showcases a selection of unique outdoor lines including DEDON, Royal Botania, MAMAGREEN, and more. The element bringing it all together, Hoff Boers emphasizes, is the remarkable Hoff Miller team.

“They are the most creatively inspiring individuals and are true experts,” she explains. “Most of them have been with us for more than 20 years.”

Since its founding in 1985, Hoff Miller has amassed an impressive portfolio of clients who specialize in both residential and commercial projects, a testament to the company's warm, welcoming, collaborative, and relationship-focused ethos.

“We love what we do and are inspired every day by the creatives we get to work with,” Hoff Boers says. “When they shine, we shine.”
