DREAMS BECOME REALITY

All About Home Design builds houses around their most important feature: the view

Scott Maynes has spent more than 35 years dotting California, Nevada, and Colorado with singular homes and commercial structures. At his firm, All About Home Design (AAHD), striving for the truly custom results in luxurious, innovative spaces.

"We don't use stock plans," Maynes says. "We work hand in hand with excellent trade partners to provide the best possible reflection of their craftsmanship in one-of-a-kind homes."

Starting at the build site, AAHD's rigorous design process prioritizes perfection and a quick turnaround time—all while considering nuanced geographical challenges. With an uncompromising eye and a passion for creativity, AAHD's penchant for designing around the view allows for a signature style that incorporates oversized windows and doors to capture as much of the landscape as possible.

"We have learned what it takes to turn a client's dream into reality," says Kimberly Davis, interior designer. "Attention to detail is what sets apart a truly memorable home."

Valuing clients' input, AAHD's collaborative approach often culminates in lasting friendships, leading to several repeat clients and word-of-mouth referrals. The firm's emphasis on quality has also led to multiple awards from the Colorado Springs Parade of Homes, a testament to AAHD's ingenuity and desire to enhance the state's rugged terrain with beautiful built environments.

CLOCKWISE FROM THE TOP: A combination of textures, shades, and materials works in harmony to craft a dynamic façade for this modern home. Inside, double islands in the kitchen provide ample space for preparing and gathering. Warm wood tones balance black accents to enhance the luxe aesthetic of the grand two-story great room. A sophisticated glass enclosure covers the dining area while highlighting nature's beauty.
