Livable Modern Interiors

Foster Hill Design elevates home interiors with a design style that blends a thoughtful approach with modern elements to create a comfortable and functional living space. The emphasis is on a clean, functional aesthetic that prioritizes practicality and simplicity.

“We believe a well-functioning and beautiful interior that personally reflects the inhabitant is transformative,” explains interior designer Nicole Foster, principal of Chicago’s Foster Hill Design. “When you have pride in your surroundings, and they rise up to meet you, getting out of bed in the morning is a little easier. Creating dinners for your family more enjoyable. And coming home a treat. When clients tell us they can’t believe they get to live in their space, we are so grateful. It makes our job rewarding.”

Foster Hill Design believes collaboration with clients is a vital aspect of interior design to create a living space that meets their client’s needs and expectations. “We have a very collaborative approach with clients in getting to their realized functional and aesthetic goals for their spaces. We pride ourselves in giving clients an elevated experience, with clear communication, flawless project management, on-time delivery, and timeline and budget management,” says Foster.

Specializing in modern interior design that features clean lines, captivating textures, and carefully curated materials, Foster Hill Design works to create a welcoming and inviting atmosphere. “We believe that modern design can be both beautiful and functional and strive to create spaces that are not only visually stunning, but also livable and comfortable,” says Foster. Services include full-service design, construction, and remodeling, and the firm serves clients in the Chicago area and beyond.
